Subject: Social cleansing

For years we the people of Haringey and in particular North Tottenham have had to endure second-class housing facilities and infrastructure now that the council finally has plans to make improvements you also plan to force out the poorest and neediest people presumably to some other deprived area and bring in the rich to benefit from all the swanky improvements once again you are using stealth to perform an act of ethnic and social cleansing not dissimilar to the lairds clearing of farmers in Scotland why can we put local people not benefit from all these improvements why do we have to be pushed out
